

Public Art Across Maryland- New Artworks FY 2026

PROJECT GRANTEEES

NAME	COUNTY	ARTS ACTIVITY	AMOUNT
Adkins Arboretum Ltd.	Caroline	The awarded funding will support artist Vicco von Voss in the creation and installation of "Woodhenge", an ecological sculpture to be located in Nancy's Meadow.	$30,000
Annapolis the Beautiful Inc.	Anne Arundel	The awarded funding will support artist Greg Harlin to create a new series of works themed around the nation's semiquincentennial anniversary and displayed as publicly throughout Maryland's capital.	$28,000
Carroll County Arts Council	Carroll	The awarded funding will support artist Shannon Scott in the creation of a large-scale, community-inspired mural, celebrating the daily life, diversity, and shared experiences of Westminster residents.	$30,000
Choptank Tolomato Legacy Project	Queen Anne's	The awarded funding will support community-artist Jimmy Reynolds in leading mobile mural workshops that will result in the creation of two large-scale murals designed and painted in collaboration with residents in rural communities.	$29,167

Cultura Plenera Inc.	Frederick	The awarded funding will support the implementation of a new bike rack and mural intended to strengthen community cohesion by tying together cultural traditions of Puerto Rican residents with local history while attracting visitors to the new Cultural Center in Brunswick, MD.	$30,000
Empact Art	Baltimore City	The awarded funding will support the creation of a new mosaic installation honoring the legacy of corner business store owners in the Collington Square neighborhood.	$30,000
BlackRock Center for the Arts (dba Germantown Cultural Arts Center Inc.)	Montgomery	The awarded funding will support artist Brandon Donahue-Shipp in the creation of a sculptural relief reflecting the local community, and located on the newly expanded outdoor stage in town center of Germantown.	$30,000
Maryland Hall for the Creative Arts Inc.	Anne Arundel	The awarded funding will support artist Walker Babington in the creation of a new, interactive outdoor public sculpture titled "Vessel".	$30,000
Pigtown Main Street Inc.	Baltimore City	The awarded funding will support artist Justin Nethercut (Nether410) in the creation of a new gateway mural celebrating the history and visual culture of the this iconic southwest Baltimore neighborhood.	$24,804
St. Francis Neighborhood Center, fiscal sponsor of Whitelock Community Farm	Baltimore City	The awarded funding will support artist Jaz Erenberg in the implementation of a new community-influenced mural for Whitelock Community Farm in the Reservoir Hill neighborhood.	$29,843
St. Mary's County Arts Council	St. Mary's	The awarded funding will support artist Eric Clark-Jackson's implementation of "Bloom" a new public artwork featuring seasonally rotating wax-resist fabric banners and located in Lexington-Manor Passive Park.	$30,000

Upper Fells Point Improvement Association Inc.	Baltimore City	The awarded funding will support artist Jaz Erenberg in the implementation of a new mural inspired by community engagement conducted with local residents.	$30,000
WeAchieve, Inc.	Montgomery	The awarded funding will support artist Shanye Huang in the implementation of a new public outdoor sculpture inspired by and designed for the clientele of WeAchieve.	$29,878
WUMCO Help Inc.	Montgomery	The awarded funding will support artist Marguerite de Messieres in the creation of a new painting honoring the legacies of Beulah Harper and Jane Stearns that will be located at the WUMCO service center in Poolesville Maryland.	$25,000

PLANNING GRANTEES

Anacostia Trails Heritage Area Inc.	Prince George's	The awarded funding will support planning and design of a bridge revitalization that will integrate public art into a new connection between the Rhode Island Avenue Trolley Trail and the Anacostia Tributary Trail System.	$10,000.00
Concerned Citizens of Upper Fells Point and West Canton Inc.	Baltimore City	The awarded funding will support artist LaToya Peoples in strategic planning and concept design for future public art in the Fells Prospect community.	$10,000.00
April Greene, Independent Artist	Baltimore City	The awarded funding will support the artist in collaborating with muralist LaToya Peoples to work with technology consultations in the planning and development of a forthcoming public artwork activated by augmented reality, and intended for the Woodbourne McCabe neighborhood.	$10,000.00

Eileen Flock, Independent Artist	Baltimore City	The awarded funding will support artist "Game of Frogs" in a collaboration with the National Federation of the Blind of Maryland, Arteasy, and the Riverside Neighborhood , in the planning of a forthcoming interactive, tactile, and accessible public artwork.	$9,850.00
Nicole Fall, Independent Artist	Baltimore County	The awarded funding will support artists Nicole Fall and Blake Conroy, in planning and student engagement activities that will inform a future public artwork for Mars Estates Elementary School in Essex, MD.	$10,000.00
Phaan Howng, Independent Artist	Baltimore City	The awarded funding will support artists Phaan Howng and Haylin Choi's in the second phase of planning and prototyping of their project "Preserving Baltimore's Unofficial Koreatown," which aims to honor immigrant history in the Station North Arts & Entertainment District.	$10,000.00
Rosalyn Galvan Independent Artist	Baltimore City	The awarded funding will support artist Rosy Sunshine Galvan in conducting community and engagement and design of two future murals for the Collington Square neighborhood.	$10,000.00
Main Street Hancock, Inc.	Washington	The awarded funding will support artist selection and planning for two new murals in this historic Canal Town as part of an overall economic development strategy to use creative placemaking to attract trail-based tourism.	$10,000.00
Neighborhood Design Center, Inc.	Prince George's	The awarded funding will support the planning process for a future public artwork located at Mount Rainier Nature Center.	$10,000.00

Recovery Resource Center	Wicomico	The awarded funding will support We Are Limitless studio in the community engagement and design process for a future mural to be located at the RRC facility in Salisbury.	$10,000.00
Southwest Sports and Fitness Alliance Inc.	Baltimore City	The awarded funding will support the artist selection and community engagement process for a future public artwork to be located at the Poppleton Recreation Center.	$10,000.00

OVERVIEW

APPLICATIONS FUNDED	APPLICATIONS RECEIVED	FUNDING THRESHOLD	FUNDING RATE
25	87	The applications were reviewed in three groups. In each group, applications scoring the percent listed or higher, were awarded funding. Group A: 94.80% Group B: 92.00% Group C: 89.33%	28 % of applications received were funded
			TOTAL FUNDING: $516,542

PANELISTS

NAME	COUNTY
Priya Bhayana	Baltimore City
Marisa Canino	Harford
Adriana Cutler	Montgomery
Carol Rhodes Dyson	Prince George's
Cyndy Guillen	Anne Arundel
Thomas James	Baltimore City
Jamie Kendrick	Harford
Anne L'Ecuyer	Montgomery
Mercedes Lopez	Baltimore City
Kathleen Pryor	Baltimore County
Jillian MacMaster	Frederick
Kristine Roome	Howard
Sharon Ryan	Allegany
DeAnna Scott	Caroline
Stephanie Sperling	Calvert

MORE INFO

The Public Art Across Maryland- New Artworks grant program supports independent artists and organizations in planning and creation of new public artworks . Learn more on MSAC's site by clicking here.