BIOGRAPHY

DuPont Brass is a one-of-a-kind, brass-driven supergroup from the greater DMV Area. Originally composed of five music majors from Howard University trying to raise money for tuition during the Christmas season, they have grown to a 9-piece ensemble consisting of brass, a rhythm section, and vocalists. Gaining popularity from playing at local Metro stations, DuPont Brass started professionally playing for events in the surrounding area and releasing recorded projects in 2013.

Thanks to the foundation laid in their earlier years, DuPont Brass has had the opportunity to perform in conjunction with the D.C. Jazz Festival, The Washington Performing Arts Society, The Kennedy Center Millennium Stage, and The National Cannabis Festival.

BIOGRAPHY

DuPont Brass is no stranger to the limelight, being featured in various publications, winning four Wammie awards, and winning the 2020 Silver Sound Showdown Music Festival in Brooklyn, NY. In 2022, they made their local television debut on WHUT's "DMV the Beat" on PBS.

Through their training in classical and contemporary styles, DuPont Brass has developed a sound they've coined "Eclectic Soul" that mixes varied genres of music, including jazz, hip-hop, and R&B. In their latest studio album, Filled with a diverse arsenal of musical styles, they present a catalog made with every kind of listener in mind. Their new release, Treat, is a Dilla-inspired groove representing the next phase of the DuPont Brass sound.

"We're not a brass band. We do play brass instruments, but we're just more than that. We're more than second line music. We're more than "When The Saints Go Marching In." We're multi-faceted."
