

Aloha Friends!

April 2023

Meki's Tamure Polynesian Arts Group, Inc. is a 501(c)3 charitable nonprofit organization based in Brooklyn Park, Maryland and our mission is to promote Polynesian cultural arts through our programs of education, entertainment and instruction. Whether we're holding a class at a local arts center, guest speaking at a university or putting on a luau festival for a community, we will be telling everyone about the islands of Fiji, Hawai'i, New Zealand, Samoa, Tahiti and Tonga.

Our group was established in 1969 by Meki & JoAnn Toalepai whose marriage in 1966 broke down Maryland's barrier which at the time prohibited marriages between whites and non-whites. Maryland changed its laws once their wedding gained national media and congressional attention. Meki & JoAnn were recipients of the 2022 Maryland State Arts Council's Heritage Award for lifetime achievement in the traditional arts.

The group is now run by their son, Meki J. Toalepai Sr., who was recently appointed by Governor Lawrence Hogan to serve as the first and only Pacific Islander in his Office on Asian Pacific American Affairs. In 2019 we reached a milestone of 50 years in business and thanks to our generous donors such as yourself, we'll continue strong for another 50 years. See below for current listing of fine organizations, venues and events we've appeared and hope to add you as a satisfied party soon!

Mahalo nui loa for your support!
