

Mariah Bethke

Parkville, MD 21234 | mariahbethke7@gmail.com | 667-214-4225

Visual artist based in Baltimore County with a passion for nature, human history, and the evolution of life

Exhibitions:

2025- Origins and Echoes, Towson University Storage Space Gallery

2025- Out of Order Exhibit, Maryland Art Place

2024- Undergraduate Juried Exhibition, Towson University Holtzman Gallery

2023- Vibrant Visions: A Fusion of Emerging Artists, Towson Unitarian Universalist Church Unicorn Gallery

Professional Experience:

Gallery Assistant Internship

Towson Arts Collective, Towson, MD

January 2025-May 2025

- Streamlined member application processes by developing an innovative online submission system
- Coordinated exhibitions and community events, enhancing local engagement and visibility
- Managed communications across email, social media, and the organization's website, increasing outreach effectiveness
- Scheduled guest artists for upcoming exhibitions, fostering collaboration and diversity in programming

Intern

Ann Arrundell County Historical Society, Linthicum Heights, MD

June 2024-August 2024

- Educated visitors about the historical significance of the Benson-Hammond House, enhancing their understanding of local heritage
- Catalogued and organized materials at the Keuthe Library, improving accessibility for researchers and visitors
- Coordinated materials and props for events, ensuring smooth operations and engaging experiences for attendees

Education:

Bachelor of Science, Art History, Research/Studio Arts Track, Minor in Museum Studies

Towson University, Towson, MD

May 2025

- GPA: 3.9; Dean's List Fall 2021-Fall 2024
- Study Abroad in U.K, France, and Italy

December 2023-January 2024