

WHO AM I?

My love for the ocean made seascapes a natural path.

Self taught artist, born and living in Maryland. I paint with acrylic on canvas at this time.

GREGSON LUNZ - PAINTER

Artwork has always been a part of my life. I started focusing more on my art in the last 20 years. As a surfer and diver, the ocean and surrounding landscape draws me in.

INTIMATE MOMENT IN NATURE -HYPER COLOR

GREGSON LUNZ - PAINTER

SANCTUARY

Two American Finches perched in a hedgerow. I used some hyper colors in this to give a surreal feeling. I thought of all that happens in a day, the beauty that know one sees, but it is there.

Dimensions: 48" X 36"

Medium: Acrylic on canvas

Concept: Intimate setting, Beauty in life that happens beyond our knowledge.

Status: Available.

SOLO ENGAGEMENT

A lone surfer checks the waves as we watch from a small cove. I added a female subject to the painting as I felt she would add more of the spirit of the painting. Perspective was important to this painting, the surfer being in the background and the water bringing your eyes to her.

Dimensions: 36" X 36"

Medium: Acrylic on canvas

Concept: Lone surfer.

Status: Available.

TROPICAL PALMS

Caribbean colors, a palm tree reaches out and shades the water with stepping stones that lead to nowhere. I wanted to give the viewer a restful feeling. An escape portal to paradise.

Dimensions: 16" X 30"

Medium: Acrylic on canvas

Concept: Caribbean hideaway

INDIAN RIVER INLET- SOUTH SIDE

Painting of the south side of Indian River Inlet, Delaware. I took license not to add the communication tower on the jetty. The north side is where I first surfed as a young man. I felt the south suitable to paint.

MY THREE FATHERS

Triptych painting from my imagination. the waves in the background represent three men that helped guide me when I was young. The painting is wrapped around the canvas.
