PROFILE

An accomplished and cleverly endowed Jazz singer, songwriter, recording artist, and ukulele player who has resided in Lanham Maryland for more than three years. During that time, Regina has performed in Washington DC, Annapolis, Baltimore, Silver Spring and Alexandria, VA. Prior to her tenure in the DC, Maryland and Virginia Area, she spent five years in Los Angeles, California, where she played an integral part in the jazz community at the World Stage Performance Gallery (TWS) established by the late Billy Higgins (most recorded drummer in Jazz history). At TWS in Leimert Park, Regina Earl served as a weekly Jam Session Host and Performer. Subsequently, she has been performing solo/duo at the Bread and Butter Kitchen (Annapolis), Order and Chaos and Baltimore Farmers Market (Baltimore), Coffee Nature, Tacoma Station Jam Session, Green Island Café Jam Session, Mr Henry's Jam Session (DC); Café du Sol (Alexandria, VA) as well as private engagements/events throughout the DMV area for the past three and a half years. Her extensive repertoire revitalizes classic jazz and blues standards of yesterday, novel R&B soul, pop and reggae tunes, as well as original music. With over twenty years of experience, Regina is enthusiastic about collaborating with other Musicians, creating unique arrangements of Jazz and Pop tunes and developing sounds healing compositions.
