

Anson Asaka

4911 Saint Georges Avenue
Baltimore, Maryland 21212

410-805-2685

ansonasaka@yahoo.com

EDUCATION

Juris Doctor May 1996

Rutgers Law School, Newark, New Jersey

Bachelor of Arts, Political Science December 1992

Howard University

ART EXPERIENCE

Artist (Freelance) October 2019 - present

Self-Employed, Baltimore, Maryland

- Drawing and painting various portraits for several clients including FMC Corporation, Howard County Public Library, East Columbia Branch and Corpus Christi Catholic Parish in Baltimore.
- Created illustrations for Point of Light religious themed greeting cards
- Drawing and painting various portraits for art exhibit and sale
- Promoted and sold art using Instagram, Facebook and YouTube

AWARDS AND RECOGNITION

- Maryland State Art Council Grants for Artists application approved in March 2023
- artspace in Richmond, Virginia selected me to participate in the JAZZ: February/March 2023 Juried Exhibition
- LED Baltimore selected me to a featured artist on their website and billboard in February 2023

EXHIBITIONS

- Solo Exhibition: The Black Queen in all of Her Splendor and Glory scheduled for March 4, 2023 through March 31, 2023 at Katsea Gallery, Towson, Maryland
- Solo Exhibition: Revolution on Canvas: An Artistic Protest Against Police Brutality, Mansion at the National Great Blacks in Wax Museum, Baltimore, Maryland on October 2021
- Solo Exhibition: The Asaka Gallery Black History Art Show and Sale at Montego Bar & Grille, Baltimore, Maryland on June 8, 2019

Social Media: Instagram: www.instagram.com/the_asaka_gallery/

Facebook: www.facebook.com/TheAsakaGallery/