

Whitney Frazier
Public Artist / Muralist / Fine Artist / Educator

Accomplished community based public artist, mural painter and studio artist with expertise in K-12 arts programming and adult education. Strong background in youth development, community organizing and curriculum development. Experienced with grant writing and fundraising for youth programming. Practiced with group facilitation, leadership development, strategic planning and team building in community and professional settings. Studio expertise include painting, drawing, design, video, murals and performance.

---

Education

- 2012 – 2013      Masters of Fine Arts in Community Arts
Maryland Institute College of Art (MICA) / Baltimore, MD
- 2006 – 2007      Masters of Art in Community Arts
Maryland Institute College of Art / Baltimore, MD
- 2002 – 2006      Bachelors of Fine Art
Maryland Institute College of Art / Baltimore, MD

Exhibitions and Public Art Projects

- 2021      Food Access Projects, designing and painting four food trailers with the Institute of Public Health Innovation & Kaiser Permanente / Prince George's County, MD
The Guardians, a citywide photo documentary and storytelling project with 15 black female participants / Baltimore, MD
- 2020      Design for Distancing Project with Baltimore Development Corporation & Neighborhood Design Center / Park Heights Baltimore, MD
Pimlico Wayfinding Project (Phase 2) funded by Dept. of Planning / Park Heights (NW) Baltimore
- 2019      Pimlico INSPIRE Placemaking Project funded through the Baltimore Office of Promotion in the Arts / Park Heights, Baltimore, MD
Bon Secour's Urban Farm third shipping container mural & marketing / Fayette & Fulton Streets West Baltimore, MD
Baltimore's Promise Interior Mural for Office / Cross Keys Baltimore, MD
- 2018      "Southern Debut" solo exhibit Palmetto Bluff galleries / Bluffton, SC
Bon Secours Urban Farm shipping container murals & mobile market design / Fayette & Fulton Streets West Baltimore, MD
Meet the artist solo exhibit / T. Rowe Price Owings Mills Campus, MD
T. Rowe Price interior abstract murals representing core values / at T. Rowe Price Owings Mills Campus, MD
Bon Secours Bicentennial outdoor mural / at 2000 W. Baltimore St. West Baltimore, MD
"The Last Day on Earth" immersive theater performances / Baltimore Center Stage
Young playwrights Festival, plays written and produced by students at the Baltimore Montessori Public Charter School, co-directed with Susan Stroupe
"Portrait Exchange" Portrait Exhibition / Leake Hall Galleries Baltimore, MD
created by MICA freshman and middle school students from the Baltimore Montessori Public Charter co-curated with professor Hannah Brancatto

-
- 2017 Sunsail cloths with seniors from Darley Park/ designed, produced and installed in Rita Church rec center
- Neighborhood Lights in Darley Park/ Amphitheater stage East Baltimore, MD with performances by TT the Artist & local dancers
- 2015 Darley Park community murals & community art designs for vacant adopt-a-lots / East Baltimore MD
- 2013 Consent Project designed educational guide for arts activist group, FORCE
- 2013 MFA Thesis Exhibit & Event / The Maryland Institute College of Art & St. Frances Academy, Baltimore, MD
- 2012 We are the Change interactive mural at Give Corps Public Event
- Women group exhibit at D Center / Baltimore, MD
- Bmore Murals / Pennsylvania Ave and Presstman St. Baltimore, MD
horizontal murals executed with 13 community members

Awards and Publications

---

- 2021 Ruby's Artist Awards Robert W. Duestch Foundation/ Baltimore, MD
- Faculty Project Award "The Gaurdians" / Maryland Institute College of Art
- Fulbright Scholarship Semi-Finalist / Mwanza, Tanzania
- 2020 Fulbright Scholarship Semi-Finalist / Mwanza, Tanzania
- Arts Every Day Impact Fund Award Winner 5k for Placemaking Project / NW Baltimore, Edgecombe Circle Elementary School
- Pimlico INSPIRE Phase 2, 30k award from City Planning Dept. and Baltimore Office of Promotion in the Arts to continue work in NW Baltimore
- 2019 Illustrations for the publication "Implementing Physical Rehabilitation Services into Comprehensive Fistula and Maternity Care: A Training Guide for Health Care Workers" written by Laura Keyser, PT
- 2018 Recipient of MICA's Curriculum Enhancement grant through the Office of Community Engagement for freshman foundation courses
- Recipient of Neighborhood Lights Grant in Darley Park (East Baltimore) including performances by TT the Artist and local Baltimore club dancers funded through the Baltimore Office of Promotion in the Arts
- Recipient of 10k Community Arts Grant through the Baltimore Office of Promotion in the Arts in partnership with Neighborhood Design Center
- Recipient of 50k MD State Bond Bill for Darley Park redevelopment projects / lots at Harford Rd. & Normal Ave. in East Baltimore
- Robert W. Deutsch Foundation Baltimore Artist Retreat Participant
- 2017 Recipient of 30k Transformative Art Prize through the Baltimore Office of Promotion in the Arts in partnership with Neighborhood Design Center
- 2016 CCBCarts.com arts and crafts blog highlighting teaching and student success stories
- 2013 Cycles: A Pocket Guide to Women's Health printed by Alphagraphics / Baltimore
- 2012 Top Recipient of MICA Community Arts Scholarship for MFA in Community Arts
- MICA Community Engagement Grant for Cycles: Women's Health Book Project
- 2011 Heroes In Service MICA Juxtaposition / MICA Communications Office, Baltimore
- 2010 Open Society Institute Semi-Finalist
- 2009 Arts, Youth and Organizing Article Published and Presenter at Arts in Society UK Conference