

THE FABULOUS, THE FOREFATHERS, & THE FORGOTTEN

JR

A HISTORY OF BLACKS ON

BROADWAY

The Fab Show Junior is an interactive musical theater experience created especially for young audiences in 1st grade and up. Performed by a dynamic cast of 5-6 singers, dancers, and actors, this production invites students to engage directly with the performers as they travel through moments of American theater history.

Through age-appropriate storytelling, music, and movement, Fab Show Jr. introduces audiences to artists such as Debbie Allen, Ben Vereen, Eubie Blake, Rosamond and James Weldon Johnson, Anita Bush and the Anita Bush Players, Florence Mills, Sissieretta Jones (the "Black Patti"), Bill "Bojangles" Robinson, and W. E. B. Du Bois. Young audiences are also introduced to playwrights Lorraine Hansberry, August Wilson, and Suzan-Lori Parks.
