

I was impressed by Marcia's passion and dynamism, by the classroom management techniques she had embedded in her program, by the quality of her instructional materials, and by her refusal to sacrifice high-order conceptual knowledge for rote memorization in teaching and learning. Daft is, without question, an extraordinary presenter. What is more extraordinary, however; is how Daft's excitement and skill for teaching mathematics transferred to our teacher population.

Deborah Bloch, Mathematics Curriculum Coordinator, Greenville MS